Order Disclaimer

- Future Orders: If you have tests to be done on a future date, please do each test on the Expected Date stated on the order or up to 14 days after the Expected Date.

- Referrals: If you have received a referral from your PCP today, here are some helpful tips:
• For routine prior authorization requests, processing by the insurance company can take up to 14 business days.
• For urgent prior authorization requests, processing by the insurance company can take up to 72 hours.
• Your TMCOne Provider determines whether the referral is a routine or urgent request.
• Our Referral Team will check your insurance benefits to determine if authorization is required and submit for authorization on your behalf if needed.
• Once authorized, the referral and any pertinent clinical documentation will be sent to the specialist/facility.
• If you are signed up for MyChart you will be notified of your approved referral with a MyChart message.
• You should expect to receive a call to schedule your appointment. If it has been over 14 days, please contact the specialist/facility to schedule.
• If you are told by the specialist/facility that they are out-of-network with your insurance, please obtain a list of those specialists/facilities that are in-network from your insurance company and inform your TMCOne provider of whom you would like to see.
• If a specialist/facility was not chosen by your TMCOne provider, the Referral Team will choose an in-network specialist/facility for you. You will then receive the referral by mail or MyChart.
• If you have any questions or concerns regarding an authorization or denial, please contact your insurance company.

I apologize I did not have this imaging when I answered yours other question. You have a moderate amount of arthritis in the right AC joint of the shoulder. I recommend we do physical therapy and I will send you to orthopedic. Cortisone shots may help this.
